THE DIVISION OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Botany

152—Field Botany. Four hours.

A study of some typical areas of the coastal plain, an island and the marsh flora, will be made. Field trips will be conducted daily except Sunday. Plants will be collected, identified, and preserved in herbaria. These will become the property of the collector. Plant presses, herbarium paper, and other laboratory equipment necessary for the proper conduction of the course will be supplied.

Zoology

153—Faunistic Zoology. Four hours.

This course will consist of the classification, distribution, life history and economic importance of species peculiar to the coastal region of Mississippi, with special reference to ecological relationships. The course will be based primarly upon living material collected in the field from marine, fresh water, and terrestrial habitats. The class will prepare records and keys for the identification of the regional fauna.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

Secondary Education

163—Laboratory Problems in Curriculum Construction. Two hours.

This course is a continuation of Education 162, in which practical problems of curriculum construction are studied through discussion, research, and experimentation. The student will be expected to study carefully the curriculum of a particular school and make recommendations for adjustments needed.

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Health

194—Tests and Measurements in Health and Physical Education. Four hours.

Tests of health, fitness, strength, skills and abilities. Administration and interpretation. Open to qualified seniors and graduates.

196—Marriage and Family Life. Three hours.

Physical and emotional basis for successful marriage and parenthood.

198—Child and Adolescent Dynamics. Three hours.

Problems growing out of the emotional needs of the developing child and the adolescent. The parents' responsibility and the teachers' responsibility for sex education.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL STUDIES

History

190—English Constitutional History. Four hours.

A course in the development of English political institutions, and governmental administration, and in the rise and growth of democracy in England from Anglo-Saxon times to the establishment of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Religious Education

20—Old Testament Survey. Two hours.

A general survey of the Old Testament: its types of literature, the general content of its books, and some attention to the Hebrew historical movements which form its background. Open to all, including freshmen.

51—History of Religions. Four hours.

A study of the grounds for religious belief among men, the emergence of tribal and national religions in antiquity, and a survey of the principal non-Christian faiths of ancient and modern times.
